

CA Labor Lab 2022 Conference Speakers

The Great Risk Shift Today

With Jacob S. Hacker, PhD
Stanley Resor Professor of Political Science, Yale University

Shift Work and Its Consequences

With Kristen Harknett, PhD
Professor, University of California,
San Francisco

& Daniel Schneider, PhD
Professor of Public Policy and
Sociology, Harvard University

Translation of Work Precarity Into Health Problems

With John Swartzberg, MD
Clinical Professor Emeritus and
Professor of the Emeriti Academy,
University of California, Berkeley

Domestic Workers Defining a New Model of the Future of Work

With Mariana Viturro
Deputy Director, National
Domestic Workers Alliance

Meeting the Challenge of Burnout

With Christina Maslach, PhD
Professor of Psychology, Emerita
University of California, Berkeley

Work Arrangements and Worker Well-Being: Research Challenges

John Howard, MD
Director, National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health, CDC

Emerging Working Conditions: OSH Interventions and Advancements

With Manal Azzi, PhD
OSH Team Lead, Senior Occupational Safety and Health Specialist,
International Labour Organization

The State of Gig Work in the United States

With Monica Anderson, MA
Associate Director of Internet and Technology Research, Pew Research
Center

How COVID-19 Changed the Workplace

With Emma Goldberg, MPhil
Future of Work Reporter, New York Times

Policy Forum

Victor Rubin, MCP, PhD
Director, Policy Forum,
CA Labor Lab

Laura Stock, MPH
Director, Labor Occupational
Health Program (LOHP)

Beth A. Ross, JD
Attorney

Assemblymember
Ash Kalra, JD

Rene Bayardo
SEIU California